SAN DIEGO, Feb. 17.—While the Mexican government took steps today to forget the Peiset tragedy as an unfortunate occurrence, the United States moved to make it a perpetual lesson to other Americans.
Mexico, officially represented by Judge Saturnino Uribe, freed three of the seven held in connection with the "shame suicides" and maneuvered around so that the maximum punishment that can be inflicted on the other four is fifteen years' imprisonment.
The United States, officially represented by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrew, issued an order closing the border line at 6 p.m. tonight, instead of 8 p.m. as has been the custom. The effect of this order will be drastic as it will curtail a huge portion of the revenue that Tia Juana saloons derive from American tourists.

PATRICK AIDES CENSURED

Tactics to Obtain Legislation
WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The House Naval Committee gave its approval today to a five-year building program to cost $18,078,000 for the naval air service. It would become operative in the fiscal year beginning June 30, next.
The program, as recommended to the House, including both heavier-than-air and lighter-than-air activities, and by the end of the period would assure the service of 1000 new airplanes and two dirigibles, each three times the size of the wrecked Shenandoah. The cost of the two dirigibles would account for $1,000,000 of the total. The committee also recommended an appropriation of $100,000 for the Navy to contract with the Aircraft Development Corporation, backed by Ford interests, for an all-metal airplane. This would be in addition to the total carried in the program.
MANY NEW PLANES
The amount proposed in the program would be in addition to the $1,300,000 carried in the Navy bill to provide for seventy-eight new planes during the next fiscal year. Coupling this amount with the $1,215,000 recommended in the program, a total of $15,515,000 would be available for the fiscal year 1937, to provide 815 new planes.
Thereafter the program would make the following appropriations:
1938: $16,328,000, providing 815 planes.
1939: $17,583,000, providing 835 planes.
1940: $18,942,000, providing 855 planes.
1941: $20,046,000, providing 847 planes.
This would give a total of 1992 planes. The program is in accordance with the recommendations of the Secretary of War Davis, following distribution of circulars urging support for Air Service legislation favored by Maj. Gen. Mason M. Patrick, chief of the Army Air Service. Maj. Arnold is information officer in Gen. Patrick's office, and the general, who has been given authority to administer the Air Service, is chief of the war plans division of the Air Service.
DENIES RUMOR
In announcing his findings, Gen. Patrick issued a statement replying to intimations in Congress and elsewhere that the investigation was really an attempt to force the War Department to force him out of the service. In his belief, he said, "there was absolutely no foundation of fact for any such sensational statements."
The investigation, he stated, was in the course of the investigation, and the honesty of their opinions, and believed that they regarded him in just this same way.
REPORT DISCUSSED
"As further evidence of the feeling of Secretary Davis toward Gen. Patrick, it is a fact that in the investigation of certain activities of officers in the office of the chief of Air Service, although the Inspector-General was associated with Gen. Patrick, the report of the investigation was presented by Gen. Patrick and was discussed with him by Secretary Davis at length."
Of course, Gen. Patrick contended the action was dictated by his office, who entirely without his knowledge and through mistaken belief, had endeavored to influence legislation in what he regarded as an improper manner.
"The steps to be taken to bring home to the officers concerned a thorough understanding of the propriety of what they had done under consideration of Gen. Patrick's report and recommendations and the Secretary instructed Gen. Patrick to take the necessary action."

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Thirteen members of the crew of the New York marine tug No. 6 escaped death in the icy waters of East River today when their vessel was rammed and sunk by the Fall River liner New Hampshire. Ten of the men were taken to hospitals, three of them in serious condition, suffering from submersion and exposure.
Police launches and other tugs searched the ice-filled waters for hours for four men who were believed to have been lost, but these later were found in hospitals to which they had been taken after swimming ashore unaided.

NEW YORK (Okla. Feb. 17.—Ernest Higdon, 32 years of age, a farmer boy in the Seminole county Jail here, is today face to face with the possibility of death in the electric chair or a life term in prison as a result of a confession that he shot his sweetheart, Rita Mae Goss, 17, to death two hours before they were to have been married. He signed a detailed statement of the shooting late yesterday after murder charges had been filed against him by County Attorney Billingsley.
The killing followed the girl's admission that she anticipated motherhood, the confession said, and Higdon refused to marry her, he said. When the girl declared that her parents, on their return from church would force the marriage, he shot her.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—President Coolidge is suffering from what his physician describes as a slight cold, and as a result was forced to cancel his business engagements shortly before 10 o'clock this morning and go to his bedroom to lie down.
Coolidge, 58, is a native of Plainfield, Mass., and is a member of the Republican Party. He was elected President in 1925, and is the first President to be elected in the year of a presidential election.
The President's indisposition manifested itself last night, precluding his attendance at a dinner at the home of Secretary of War Edwin D. M. Clegg, and his return from that dinner to his room. Mrs. Coolidge, however, attended.

BINGHAM (Utah) Feb. 17.—With a known death list of thirty-five, every available man in this little mining camp in the Oquirrh Mountains tonight is bending every effort to recover the fifty or more still unaccounted for following the snowslides that swept down Sap Gulch this morning, carrying everything before it.
Seventeen dwellings, housing families of miners employed in the several copper mines in the neighborhood, a three-story frame boarding-house and a number of smaller outbuildings were buried beneath the avalanche of thousands of tons of rock, ice, snow and other debris that fell a distance of two miles down the gulch this morning, shortly before 10 o'clock.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The Countess of Cathcart was ordered excluded from the United States today by the Labor Department.
She is now held at Ellis Island as a result of admissions made to immigration authorities in connection with her elopement to South Africa with the Earl of Craven.
Her counsel announced they will apply to the District Court in New York for a writ of habeas corpus under which the case would come up for judicial review.
SIGNED BY DAVIS
Secretary Davis personally signed the deportation order after he had studied recommendations from a board of review which Monday heard arguments in the case. At these hearings the charge was made that the Countess was attempting to apply a double-standard. Those favoring admission of the Countess, including delegates from the National Women's party, asserted that she was being discriminated against, while her husband was permitted to land recently.
A warrant, however, is now awaiting in New York which would subject the Earl to deportation proceedings should he return there from Canada.
The statement announcing the department's ruling said that the exclusion of the Countess is mandatory under the immigration law.

QUOTES ALIEN ACT
"This action is based on that part of Section 8 of the Immigration Act of February 2, 1917, known as the general immigration law, which provides in part as follows:
"The following classes of aliens shall be excluded from admission into the United States: Persons who have been convicted of or admitted having committed a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude."
The alien admitted the commission of such an offense, and that being the case, her exclusion was mandatory."

METROPOLITAN OPERAHOUSE, NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—A plump, pink and white-eyed girl of 19 held a Metropolitan Opera-house audience spellbound tonight with the beautiful, full tones of "Caro Nome."
At the last note a storm of applause swept the packed auditorium, stopping the show for five minutes, and the name of Marion Talley of Kansas City was securely inscribed on the role of prima donna.
As the curtain fell on the second act of Verdi's "Rigoletto" the applause broke out again and the audience called the youngest prima donna ten times before the footlights before they would let her go. The huge auditorium rang with the shouts of "bravo" and "Talley!"
Seated at the sending end of the special line in the third act when Miss Talley, of De Luca sang two duets.
Miss Talley's voice, firm and of unusual range, was clear in the upper register and soft but full in its lower tones.
When Miss Talley returned to her dressing room at the end of the second act she found awaiting her flowers sent by the telegraph operators of the New York bureau of the Associated Press as a tribute to the daughter of a man who once clicked off his little article of news over Associated Press wires.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—John Van Ryn, 21-year-old Princeton undergraduate of East Orange, N. J., reached the semifinal bracket in the national indoor tennis championships on the board courts of the Seventh Regiment Armory today by defeating the veteran internationalist, Erik Worms of Denmark, 6-0, 6-3.

The three French Davis Cup stars, Jean Borotra, Rene La Coste and Jacques Brugnon, won their third-round matches and gained the quarter final round. Francis T. Hunter of New Rochelle, Vincent Richards of Yonkers, N. Y., and William T. Tilden, II, of Philadelphia, are the other quarter finalists.

Today's matches narrowed the field down to seven players and tomorrow will see the stars of the tournament battling for semifinal ranking. Borotra, 1925 indoor champion, faces his first real test tomorrow when he meets Tilden, while Friday will see Richards facing La Coste and Hunter opposing Brugnon.

Van Ryn is playing his second year in senior ranks. While a junior player, he held the national junior indoor doubles title with Kenneth Apple, also of East Orange, N. J. The Princeton youth will meet the winner of the Rich-

Giants Off to Open Training Work in South

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Spring is here. In spite of the snow-banked streets, the slush and mush in the gutters and the wintry nip in the air, spring is here, for tomorrow night the big parade starts south, and baseball is near at hand.
The Giants will lead the movement of Metropolitan and teams to the training camps along the washed coast of Florida. The detachment will consist of the batmen, old and new, and a corps of newspapermen detailed to cover the period that makes or breaks the youngsters.
The party that leaves at 7:10 o'clock tomorrow night from the Pennsylvania station will consist of only four actual baseball players, completely surrounded, as far as the eye can see by the war crips, but a few others will join the group before it reaches Sarasota and the rest will travel from their respective homes. All will report to Manager McGraw on Saturday morning for the first workout.
Those leaving from New York are Hugh McQuinn, veteran pitcher who has patched up all his difficulties with the Giants and is ready to start all over again; Jimmy Ring, the Brooklyn boy, obtained in a trade which sent Jack Bentley and Wayland Dean to the Phillies during the winter; Lloyd G. Davies, left-handed pitcher purchased from New Haven, and Tim McNamara, right-handed pitcher obtained from Boston.
Manager McGraw made his last departure for Florida on Tuesday night and will not return to New York again until he brings his Giants up the trail to start the National League campaign.

Pick Quarter Mile Runners for U.S.C. Team

Probable starters for the Trojans in the 440 event in the U.S.C. Occidental meet, which is to open the local college season, will be selected last night by Coach Cromwell. The Trojan mentor sent ten of his candidates for the quarter-mile through a 230-yard sprint at the Coliseum.
Wallace Smith, McDaniel and Lovejoy were the first quartet to finish, the winner being clocked in 1:24, good time for this early in the year.

Wallace and Bruce Smith will doubtless be the two on whom the Trojan hopes will rest, with two others as possibilities. The 440 is the Trojan weak spot this year, as most of the other events are well taken care of.

SMITH FEATURES
Wallace displayed a good race to win, but Smith showed himself to be a real runner by finishing in classy fashion and was rapidly wearing down the winner at the end. Lovejoy, who is normally a half-mile or mile performer, also did well. Aden Hughes, a hero back in 1924, when he won the race in the California meet despite the fact that he was spiked and a tendon ripped when still fifty yards from the finish, appeared, but was palpably out of condition. Hughes had not donned a track shoe until this year, from that date.
Lee Heilman showed the boys a thing or two about racing when he galloped the 330 in something over 2:02.5, a nifty performance for a regular miler this early in the season. Mike Elwood and Ward Young, also milers, trailed Lee to the tape. The latter was a big surprise. He was out for the fresh team last year, and according to Dean Cromwell, his first official clocking showed a mile in 2:24. He was right on Elwood's heels

Brazill Leads Hold-Over Ranks

Seattle Star Dissatisfied With Terms Offered

Contract Torn, Sent Back by Slugging Infielder

Angels Show Plenty of Pep Amid Warm Weather

BY ROBERT RAY

Frank Brazill, slugging third-sacker of the Seattle Indians, has elected himself president of the 1924 Holdover Club, Brazill, who after topping the Coast League's hitters most of the way last season, qualified himself for the position when he tore up the contract offered him for the coming season into numerous pieces which he inserted in an envelope and mailed back to Charley Lockard, president of the Seattle club.

Brazill has been playing third base for the White King Sluggers in the Winter League and can get in shape in little or no time, so he can afford to hold out for quite a spell without incurring his chances for having a good year.

The Angel battermen took their second day of spring training at Wrigley Field yesterday with weather conditions ideal. Under the warming rays of Southern California sun, as the saying goes, the Angeles perspired so much that the manager, Ed Schallmeier, found that the field after the workout.

The athletes showed plenty of pep. Manager Ray Knap put them through a series of drills, including a relay race, in which they were to be added that coiled and charged like a snake.

Whitely Glanzer, Truck Hannah and Gale Staley were among those to put in a warm-up workout. Glanzer said that he had been ill most of the winter and lost a lot of weight, which he said he would make up in a short while on second base in a short infield practice and showed up in fine shape.

Bill Lane confirmed the reports of the Kallio-Shellenback trade with Sacramento with the arrival of Shellenback in the city from Law Moring.

Lefty O'Doul Showing Class as Cub Rookie

BY IRVING VAUGHN

AVAILON, Feb. 17.—If anyone has an eye on the center-field job for Joe McCarthy, he'll have to talk it over with Frank "Lefty" O'Doul, a southpaw hurler, who reformed and went to chasing flies when he learned that he was fairly capable with the bat.

O'Doul is only one of ten men in the Cubs' camp who hope to survive when the elimination process sets in, but he has an edge on the others because of a neat bat. He is a good thrower and a good player, and he has a batting skill that is a long, long chance.

RANCHO TRIMS WILSHIRE

Von Elm's Teammates Sweep Into Class A Interclub Title With 9-to-6 Victory; Circuit Results

George Von Elm, California's greatest amateur, paired with Frank Clark and carrying by far the greatest weight in the first team match set to with Wilshire at Rancho, yesterday, 3 down to Norman Macbeth and Max Behr, at the turn, dropped a beautiful par 4 for a 1-up win on the home green in the face of a great eighteen-hole onslaught by Wilshire's premier duo, that resulted in a 9 to 6 win for Rancho and divisional honors in the Class A teams competition.

Norman Macbeth shared individual honors with Von Elm, each winning four holes, while Max Behr, with some beautiful shots that fell on the inside when most needed, was credited with two holes. Macbeth and Behr had a total of 48, while Von Elm and Clark finished up a 10. Von Elm dropped a beautiful birdie 3 to square the feature match on the sixteenth and trimmed the cup for another birdie 3 on the seventeenth.

Elmer Henderson and Frank DeLoe, Wilshire's second team, lost their first match in more than two years, when Leon Macbeth and a twenty-foot putt for a birdie 3 and a two-way win on the eighteenth. Team results with first team summary, as follows:

ENGINEERS TO FACE SAGEHENS

Rival Track Teams Tangle at Claremont Saturday

Loss of Snyder and Pinney is Blow to Pomona
Caltech Squad is Strong in Sprint Events

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
POMONA COLLEGE, Feb. 17.—With the Sagehens in none too good a shape for so early a meet, the conference track season will get under way at Claremont on Saturday with Coach Bob Strehle's scintillatingly clad athletes entertaining Caltech, the recent rains have cut into the training of both teams and it is probable that neither outfit will be in first-class shape.

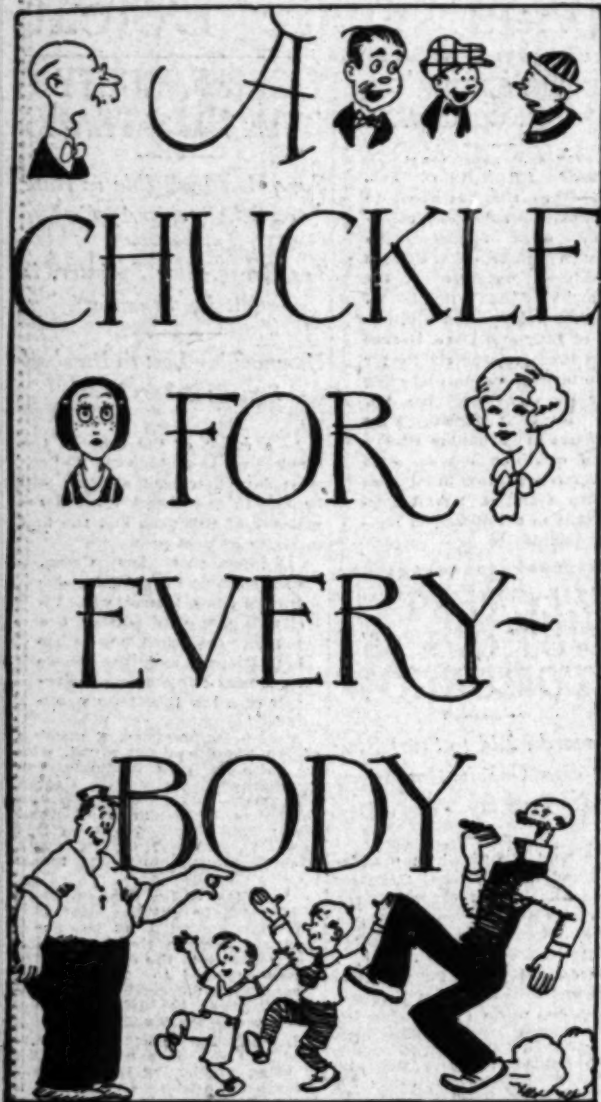

Coach Strehle will be handicapped by the absence of two members of last season's championship team in the persons of Capt. Bill Snyder, two-miler, and Hugh Pinney, sprinter.

The Sagehens intercollegiate meet this week failed to bring forth any new material and two variety men were defeated in the 100-yard dash. Frank Rentschler, who had been expected to take Nick Carter's place as the premier conference miler, was beaten by Miles Fisher in a slow mile. Rentschler was not in shape, but at the same time he failed to show any sprint at the end and Fisher kicked him at the tape. Lyle Johnson, who ran the half-mile slightly under two minutes last season, was beaten this week by Corwin, a freshman from Pomona. Like Rentschler, Johnson was not in shape, but he will probably not be in better form for the Caltech meet.

The Engineers will be strong in the sprints, hurdles, weights and javelin and have men in these events good enough to defeat the Sagehens. The come-back of Dan Miliken in the hurdles has given Coach Strehle a little reason to feel happy. Two years ago Miliken placed a close second to Bob Macbeth in the conference meet, but last year, handicapped by early season illness, he failed to make his letter. He defeated Steve Turner in the high hurdles in the home-field meet and turned in sixteen seconds on a soft, mushy track. Both Miliken and Turner have run the high sticks in 15.5, and both should do that or better later in the season. Miliken is the best low hurdler and has done his best in this race.

The recent intercollegiate meet here brought out some fair times, although the heavy track made fast traveling a thing of no ease. ## FIGHT CENTERS ON ESTATE TAX

Senate and House Conferees
Find Stumbling Block

Retroactive Feature Causes Sharpest Clashes

Agreements on Other Points
Believed Certain

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Retroactive reductions in estate tax rates of the Senate revenue bill were reported today to be the chief stumbling block in the way of an agreement between Senate and House conferees.

Senate conferees were said to be holding out for the acceptance of these reductions which would scale down rates on estates of persons who have died since 1924, when the maximum estate tax was increased from 25 to 40 per cent.

Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, ranking minority member of the Senate Finance Committee, was understood to be taking the lead in the demand for the retroactive reductions which would mean a saving of several million dollars to the beneficiaries of the Duke estate, which includes Duke University and various hospitals and schools in North Carolina.

HUGE LOSS FEARED
Representative Green, Republican, Iowa, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, was reported to be opposing the retroactive estate tax reductions which, according to Treasury estimates, would mean a loss in revenue of $20,000,000 during 1924 and a total of $85,000,000 during the four or five years that revenue from estates of persons dying between 1924 and 1928 would be coming in.

While no official announcements were forthcoming as to discussions in conference, reports were that if the House conferees would accept the retroactive reductions on estate tax rates and also approve the reductions in surtaxes in the middle brackets as provided in the Senate bill, an agreement might be reached on other features in controversy. The moment House conferees agree to these proposals, the Senate conferees are reported as ready to concede the retention of the estate tax at the reduced rates and the House provision, repealing all automobile and admission taxes.

House conferees are understood to be willing to accept the repeal of the capital stock tax and the substitution of 22 cents per share on corporate earnings.

LARGE ESTATES
Among the largest estates which would benefit from the retroactive reductions besides that of James B. Duke, estimated at $15,000,000, are those of Jennie Woolworth, $10,000,000; William A. Clark, $11,000,000; A. D. Hunt, $10,000,000; W. R. R. Coe, $10,000,000; Anne H. Benjamin, $11,000,000; Kate W. Winthrop, $11,000,000; Isabella S. Gardner, $11,000,000; and Frederick F. Ayer, $10,000,000.

Senate and House conferees plan to meet separately tomorrow morning in order to prepare final demands to submit to each other. A showdown may come tomorrow on the principal points of controversy.

The Internal Revenue Bureau issued regulations today relating to the filing of information returns by employers of employees. The regulations are based on the increased exemptions of the new tax bill, regarding which there is no disagreement in conference.

Instead of having, as heretofore, report payments to others of $1000 or more during the taxable year, this year no reports are required of payment of income to single individuals of less than $1000 and of payments to married individuals of less than $3500.

PLANS TO COST $1,000,000
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
VANCOUVER (B. C.) Feb. 17.—Plans have been issued by the Canadian Timber Company for the construction of a new sawmill and shingle mill on the company's shore on the north side of Burrard Inlet. The total expenditure to be $1,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Irish Legation officials and the police are trying to find a key to a door and a half quart of liquor which have disappeared from the legation. ## BRANCH BANKS BENEFIT SHOWN

Financier Says Community

McFadden Bill Sponsors
Point to Monopoly

Fund for Survey Declared
Boon to Country

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Defending State-wide branch banking such as is carried on in California, former United States Senator Flint of Pasadena and John Drum, president of the Mercantile Trust Company of San Francisco, opposed the McFadden banking bill at a continued hearing before the Senate subcommittee on Banking and Currency today.

Drum took issue with statements made by proponents of the measure yesterday's session of the hearing, declaring that to restrict branch banks from Federal Reserve privileges would be tantamount to the government's breaking faith with the branch bankers.

He also asserted that a fund of $50,000 made up by a group of California branch bankers and expended in statistical research by Parker Willis, editor of the New York Journal of Commerce, had been well spent and that the results of the investigation had been worth the amount of money paid.

EFFECTIVENESS SHOWN
Drum reviewed the branch banking system of California, saying that its effectiveness in serving the people has never been questioned by the thousands of depositors who seem to be entirely satisfied with the efficiency of the banking services given them by branch banks.

But it is not fair to say that all banks approve the proposal that national banks be given the right to have branches in city limits, he said, that banks operating under State charter are opposed to the plan to penalize branch banks.

Drum made a statement in support of the McFadden bill at yesterday's session of the subcommittee on Banking and Currency. He said that the bill would be a boon to the people of California and that it would be a boon to the country.

QUIZ BEGUN IN CONVICT MINE DEATH

Father Charges Son Was Killed by Negro Trustees in Alabama Camp

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE)
TUSCUMBIA (Ala.) Feb. 17.—A general investigation into recent deaths of convicts at Alabama mines operated by convict labor is being conducted by Atty.-Gen. Harvard following the filing of complaints.

J. W. Taylor yesterday asked that an investigation be conducted into the death of his son "Pete," who died at a convict camp after serving eight days of a ten-year sentence.

Announcement by the Attorney-General also indicated a grand jury investigation will be asked into the death of James Knox West Virginia, who died in a convict camp in August, 1924. He said efforts had been made to frustrate his inquiry into the case.

Mr. Taylor in his complaint filed with Sheriff Henry Cobb of Cobb county, charged that his son was beaten to death by two negro trustees who had been ordered to punish him. Prison records showed Taylor died of heart trouble but Mr. Taylor said his son had never been troubled with his heart.

The Taylor case is similar to that of Knox, who reports said, was beaten to death when he failed to dig his share of coal. The Attorney-General has been investigating the case but has not given his report which, he said, would be voluminous. Prison records stated Knox died from poison self-administered.

Mary newspaper reports said Knox was scolded to death in a convict camp and forced into his body by someone at the prison camp. Knox was serving a two-year sentence for forging a check.

TRAIN KILLS STATE WARD AT NORWALK

Man Ground Under Wheels
at Crossing Believed to be Hospital Patient

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
FULLERTON, Feb. 17.—A man believed to be John Huber, 73 years of age, a patient at the State Hospital at Norwalk, was killed instantly today at a grade crossing about a mile from the institution when he was crushed beneath the wheels of a Santa Fe train. The accident occurred about noon.

According to Dr. Edwin Wayte, superintendent of the hospital, the victim was identified by his name found on his clothing. Dr. Wayte stated Huber, whose relatives reside at Glendora, was a parolee patient, and had been living at one of the convalescent cottages.

Discovery by car inspectors in Los Angeles of bits of flesh and clothing and bloodstains on car wheels of a passenger train from Fullerton, which passed through Fullerton at noon, led to the discovery of the body, which was found beyond recognition. A brakeman reported a slight bump as the train passed the point where the body was found.

The body was removed to the Emerson & White mortuary at Fullerton, and Coroner Nance was notified. Deputy Sheriff Allen of Los Angeles is investigating.

"The latest addition to their ranks is the college youth 'working' his way around the world to complete his education." Some of these may have seen a college—to be sure, many of them were once collegians—but apparently "working" their way is the most remote of their ideas. They are simply begging their way.

Fine in Canadian Court Blow to Liquor Traffic

(REUTERS DISPATCH)

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Feb. 17.—A blow was struck by Canada at the asserted illegal smuggling of liquor in to the United States when the Consolidated Exporters, Ltd., charged with falsifying accounts in connection with asserted liquor shipments to the United States fishing boat Helgeland, was fined $1000 by Magistrate McLymont in court at Prince Rupert, B. C.

Further charges against the same company which are of a similar nature are yet to be heard. The Consolidated Exporters own the Malahat and Coal Harbor and had an interest in the Quadra which was captured and a part of its crew sent to prison by San Francisco courts. The company has also been prominently mentioned in the Chinatown liquor trial in Seattle.

"Aside from Dutch New Guinea and parts of Borneo, where there is the menace of cannibals and other savages, travel is reasonably safe," he declared.

Coyotes Found Menacing Due to Starvation

(REUTERS DISPATCH)

ELLENWORTH (Neb.) Feb. 17.—The coyote, once the most cowardly of prairie animals, is becoming bold and dangerous in this section through starvation. The heavy snows in the sandhill section make daily feeding of the stock a necessity. This means a closer watch is kept on stock, and the weak cattle and calves in the coulees and draws are no longer the prey of these animals.

It is now necessary for citizens to arm themselves when going on a jaunt foot through the hills. W. D. Nies had one coyote follow him for two miles, the animal often getting menacingly close. He was unarmed, but vigorous shaking of his overcoat finally drove the animal off. Half a dozen other stockmen have been followed for miles by these packs, and only the greatest alertness on their part saved them from being attacked.

IN 1845, MEXICO, ANGERED BY OUR ANNEXATION OF TEXAS, SEVERED DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH THE UNITED STATES. MEANWHILE THE TEXANS AND MEXICANS WERE CONSTANTLY EMBROILED OVER THE QUESTION OF BOUNDARIES.

THE TEXANS CLAIMED THE RIO GRANDE FOR THEIR SOUTHWESTERN BOUNDARY, WHILE THE MEXICANS INSISTED THAT TEXAS EXTENDED NO FARTHER WEST THAN THE NUECES RIVER.

IN THE FALL OF 1845, PRESIDENT POLK SENT JOHN SLIDELL OF LOUISIANA TO MEXICO TO SETTLE ANY DIFFERENCES IN TEXAN CLAIMS, AND WITH AN OFFER TO PURCHASE NEW MEXICO AND PART OF CALIFORNIA.

ANTI-AMERICAN FEELING WAS NOT IN MEXICO THAT SLIDELL WAS NOT RECEIVED. WHILE HE LINGERED IN MEXICO A HEAVY, GENERAL STORMY DUST STORM, 1,500 UNITED STATES TROOPS MARCHED TO THE MEXICAN BORDER.

Colonial Hero's Aged Daughter's Life Span Ends

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
MILWAUKEE, Feb. 17. — Mrs. Louisa K. Thiers, 111 years of age, daughter of a veteran of the American Revolution, died here today. Her father was Seth Kapron, a Massachusetts pioneer, who joined the Colonial forces at 18 years of age and rose to be an aide-de-camp of Gen. Washington.

Mrs. Thiers often told of her father's acquaintance with Washington. At the time of Cornwallis' surrender, according to Mrs. Thiers, Washington shook hands with hundreds of his soldiers and the last to bid him good-by was her father.

She recalled a visit she made with her father to West Point, where she met Lafayette.

BOND QUOTATIONS

Interest Dull

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Investment interest in the $12,000,000 or new financing which appeared in the market today dulled the edge of bond trading, although the prices held fairly firm. Orders continued to flow in for the $12,000,000 of New York City securities opened to subscription yesterday while the demand for $50,000,000 of general Motors Acceptance Corporation 5 per cent notes offered today caused a quick over-subscription of that issue.

Another interesting place of financing has been scheduled for tomorrow when a syndicate headed by Blair & Co. will cover $12,000,000 first mortgage fifteen-year 6 per cent bonds of the Otis Steel Company at 98½ to yield 6.15 per cent.

Railroad loans made the best showing of any group of listed bonds, although price movements were not uniform. Buying interest was aroused in such issues as Lehigh Valley 4½ and 5s, Delaware and Hudson 5s and refunding 4½s and others in a position to be benefited by the settlement of the coal strike.

Cross currents of trading resulted in marked irregularity in the industrial division. Copper bonds continued their recovery, but profit-taking continued in oil, independent steel and local traction bonds.

Following are yesterday's high, low and closing prices of the New York Stock Exchange and the bond of stock:

BOND QUOTATIONS

Interest Dull

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Investment interest in the $12,000,000 or new financing which appeared in the market today dulled the edge of bond trading, although the prices held fairly firm. Orders continued to flow in for the $12,000,000 of New York City securities opened to subscription yesterday while the demand for $50,000,000 of general Motors Acceptance Corporation 5 per cent notes offered today caused a quick over-subscription of that issue.

Another interesting place of financing has been scheduled for tomorrow when a syndicate headed by Blair & Co. will cover $12,000,000 first mortgage fifteen-year 6 per cent bonds of the Otis Steel Company at 98½ to yield 6.15 per cent.

Railroad loans made the best showing of any group of listed bonds, although price movements were not uniform. Buying interest was aroused in such issues as Lehigh Valley 4½ and 5s, Delaware and Hudson 5s and refunding 4½s and others in a position to be benefited by the settlement of the coal strike.

Cross currents of trading resulted in marked irregularity in the industrial division. Copper bonds continued their recovery, but profit-taking continued in oil, independent steel and local traction bonds.

RECORD SARDINE PACK FORECAST

Local Canner Sets Figure at 1,200,000 Cases

Total Will be Nearly Double
That of Last Year

Setbacks of Early Season to Reduce Output

Southern California sardine cannery will shatter all records in size of pack, despite early season setbacks. Frank W. Camp, head of the Van Camp Sea Food Company, said yesterday. He expects the season's close, late next month, to witness the packing of 1,200-000 cases of sardines, while almost double the canneries' output of 700-000 cases last season, will still fall short of the 1,800,000 cases mark set at the beginning of the season last autumn.

Approximately 600,000 cases of sardines are expected to be packed to date, due to the late appearance of the fish, to storms, to the moon, and other influences, but the sardines now are running in large numbers only a few miles from the plants and the catches are bountiful, enabling the canneries to run up to their capacity at last.

Every day sees more than 1000 tons of the little silver-sided fish pass through their watery playground into nets, to boats, to frying and drying pans and finally into cans.
And today's mark of 400,000 cases is expected to be doubled before the close next month.

While the outlook is for a prosperous season, local canners will not enjoy the full price rise recently obtained by a scarcity of French,
English and Scandinavian sardines, as they sold in advance of the season, months ago, when these were far under what they are today.

Due to the world scarcity, however, the big Southern California canneries are expected to make their appearance in markets heretofore dominated by the Atlantic fish, as well as all record seasons in the Orient and in South America, where the purchasing power has risen with the rising price of coffee and rubber. Eighty per cent of the local pack heretofore has gone to Latin and oriental countries, whereas previously the local canneries catered by putting up canned tomatoes, sardines, and olive oil, as relished by Americans.

"On the heels of the closing ar-rison season, the tuna fish is getting scarce and expected to make a serious season's packing. The tuna pack was 800,000 cases, which was slightly above normal.
This season's pack is expected to be 1,200,000 cases, or 40 per cent above the normal pack."

From information in the hands of the Bureau of Fisheries, it now is believed that the tuna spawning grounds are situated halfway between the Galapagos and the Marquesas groups of islands along the equator. It is said that in these latitudes such immense schools of tuna form that in early spring one can see with a good eye all a whale boat in a couple of hours. From the main school migrates the northward coast of Lower California in July and thence working up to Southern California. It is said that the main schools may approach as far south as Panama in their migration, and follow the coast northward.

PADLOCK STORE IN DEATH CASES
Grocery Stock Condemned as Poison Source
Enough Tainted Food Found to Kill Half of City
Officers Seek Proprietors of Little Russia Shop
A grocery store under investigation in connection with several mysterious deaths in Little Russia and Little Armenia was closed yesterday by health inspectors, who declared warrants will be issued today for the owners on charges of dealing in unwholesome goods. Not only was the store padlocked, but one-third of its entire stock was condemned as unfit for human food. Raids on several other groceries in the same neighborhood, the inspectors declared, disclosed some unwholesome goods, and where these were found they were seized.
The closed grocery was that of Lopez Brothers, 1506 East First street, declared to be in a "filthy, filthy unsanitary condition," with its stock "impure, moldy and repulsive to the senses." It was found, among other things, ninety-one cans of sardines suspected of being infected with bacillus botulinus. The grocery was inspected personally by Health Officer Parrish before the action was taken, it was said. He estimated the condemned food was sufficient in quantity to kill half the population of the city.

BAKERY CLOSED
Chief Inspector M. S. Siegel, District Supervising Inspector D. C. Powell, F. D. Sweger, director of the sanitary bureau of the health department, and inspectors C. W. Henry and Sol Casper are participating in the work of cleaning up the district. The inspection, it was said, followed reports of several mysterious deaths, of both children and adults, in the neighborhood. Inspectors Henry and Casper, in the vicinity Tuesday, found several swelled cans in alleys. They started to trace their source and discovered, they said, that they came from the Lopez grocery, owned by Alfred Lopez and his wife, and that they were in the vicinity of the Lopez store. These swelled cans, the inspectors said, came from the cans collected by rubbish men from whole-sale groceries that had discarded them. The Lopez Brothers were said to be out of the city yesterday and it was declared they will be arrested on their return.

DISCARDS SOLD
The health officers after padlocking the Lopez Brothers' establishment, visited another small corner grocery close by. Death lurked in a score of cans of food, the officers found. The goods were confiscated and ordered destroyed. At two other stores in the Little Russia neighborhood, the officers found canned sauerkraut which they said would have wiped out entire families.
One Russian rubbish collector, the health officers said, who lives in the community, had three truckloads of condemned goods stored in a small warehouse. The entire supply was destroyed. According to the health department, he had been giving this tainted food to poverty-stricken families, not realizing that very can was poisonous. It is also asserted by the health authorities that large quantities of canned goods discarded by a large wholesale grocery house have been sold by rubbish collectors instead of being destroyed.

MANY VARIETIES SHOWN
One of the features of this year's show will be the citrus experiment station. Mr. McAllister stated, "Most persons think of citrus fruits solely as oranges, lemons, grapefruit and, perhaps, tangerines," he said. "At the experiment station will be found a total of 1800 different citrus varieties, many of them veritable freaks of the citrus kingdom."
It was pointed out yesterday weather conditions will in no way interfere with the show inasmuch as it is now housed in a permanent home, blocks in length, with heating facilities and where meals can be obtained.

RESIDENTS VICTIMS IN REZONING FIGHT
The report of the City Planning Commission recommending that Fifty-fourth street from Sixth avenue to Mesa Drive be rezoned as residential property was adopted yesterday by the Council by a vote of 2 to 4 after a spirited contest by opposing parties. The street was zoned for business about a year ago and Councilmen Barnes and Jacobson said they opposed the precedent of changing zones with such frequency, while other Councilmen stated that the property owners of the vicinity, who have developed it as a high-class residential section, looked with disfavor upon the encroachment of business buildings.

THREE erstwhile college freshmen, graduates of the San Bernardino High School, yesterday stood before an assembly of their fellow-students at the University of Southern California and proudly received from its president, Dr. Rufus B. Von Kleinsmid, the annual President's Cup, awarded to their high school because during the 1924-25 school term at the university they maintained the highest scholastic average in the freshman class.
The honored students were: Leland Conner, Mildred M. Ratcliffe and Martha Wiggett. A fourth, Edmund Blitke, was unable to attend the presentation. All are prominent in campus activities at the university.
The awarded trophy, bearing the names of the scholars, will later be taken to the San Bernardino High School by President Von Kleinsmid, who will present it to the student body of that institution.

STAGE DEPOT LEASE SIGNED
Pickwick System Will Erect World's Largest Terminal of Kind on New Property
The Pickwick Stages System has acquired a ninety-nine year lease on land on Sixth street and Maple avenue and will enlarge its depot facilities and erect an eight-story hotel. The new terminal, it is said, will be the largest stage depot in the world. Announcement of the deal was made by Caldwell, Cornwall & Banker.
The lease covers an L-shaped parcel of land belonging to Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Schwapp. It has an eighty-foot front on Sixth street, running 150 feet deep to the north. There is a fifty-foot frontage on Maple avenue running 200 feet west. The land adjoins the present site of the Pickwick stage depot on the northeast corner of Sixth and Los Angeles streets. The rental on the lease is said to involve the sum of $2,450,000.
Building plans call for an eight-story hotel to rise above the present depot facilities, on the entire Pickwick holdings, which now have a frontage of 115 feet on Los Angeles street, 210 feet on Sixth street and fifty feet on Maple avenue. The present depot has a foundation sufficient to carry an eight-story structure, it is stated.
The entire first and second floors of the new building will connect with the present depot, giving stage facilities extending from Los Angeles street through to Maple avenue. The Pickwick stages system will occupy the depot exclusively.

Union Passenger Station Declared by Storror to be Only Way to End Grade Crossings
The elimination of grade crossings for other than industrial delivery means a union railroad passenger terminal for Los Angeles, declared Samuel Storror, consulting engineer, last night in addressing the Women's Traffic Club meeting at the Builders' Exchange Building.
It is advocating the Plaza union passenger station as ordered by the Railroad Commission and endorsed by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Mr. Storror said:
"The selection of the right site for a union passenger terminal will free the streets of Los Angeles from every track at grade on which it is necessary or economical to handle passenger equipment."
"It is clear that a single union terminal properly located and designed for convenient access from the tracks at the river bank and free of grade crossings with the streets, will be simpler and more economical to operate than three independent systems, and a possible fourth, if the Western Pacific, the Rock Island or the Pennsylvania system undertakes to reach Los Angeles."
"This single union station is the sure way to reduce the mass of tracks between the several main lines and the platforms. The present alternative plan of the railroad now before the City Council and the State Railroad Commission actually increases the number of grade crossings. I ask you to insist upon a determination of this whole question by the State and Federal bodies appointed for that purpose."
E. C. Thomas of the Pacific Electric Railway defended the carriers' alternative plan of trestles, elevated structures and foot bridges as a substitute for the Plaza union station.

LAEMMLE RETURNS TO FILM CITY
Universal Head Plans to Celebrate His Twentieth Anniversary in Business
Carl Laemmle, head of Universal Pictures Corporation, arrived here yesterday to celebrate his twentieth anniversary in the business, which occurs on the 28th inst.
The film head of the business, which was accompanied by his son, Carl, Jr., by Andre Laemmle, European actor known as "the blond Valentin," and by E. A. Du Pont, director for the UFA company in Germany and of a number of Pola Negri's foreign pictures.
Laemmle repeated on his arrival that Universal lost nothing when Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and Famous Players-Lasky came to an agreement with UFA after Laemmle had been the exclusive exhibitor rights in the UFA theaters, Laemmle stated.
Under the new terms Universal furnishes only $1,000,000 capital instead of $4,000,000, Laemmle said, while the exhibition rights and the arrangement of trading players are even more advantageous than under the first plan. Universal would have had to go outside of its organization for films if it had been the holder of exclusive exhibition rights in the UFA theaters, Laemmle stated.
At the station to meet the incoming official were many employees of Universal together with Herb Wiedoeft's Band, which furnished the music for the occasion.
Laemmle is staying at the Ambassador, where a ball is being planned for the night of his twentieth anniversary in the film industry.

BANK HOLD-UPS CONFESSED
Police Arrest Suspect With $4294 in Bills Who, They Say, Admits Four Robberies During Month
James Thompson, 34 years of age, who gave his occupation as a mining engineer, confessed last night to four branch-bank holdups within the past four weeks, according to police. The sum of $4295, in $10, $20, $50 and $100 bills, was found in his rooms when he was arrested, police said.
Two young men, who called upon Thompson while the officers were in his apartment on West Adams near Romeo street, were arrested on suspicion of robbery, despite Thompson's protestations that they had nothing to do with the hold-ups. They gave their names as Stan Pruitt and Joe Bush, both 19 years of age.
The list of robberies attributed to Thompson, as given out by the police, follows:
Pacific-Southwest Trust and Savings Bank branch at Pico and Valencia, January 16, $2100.
Pacific-Southwest branch at Sixth and Bonnie Brae, the 1st inst., $1165.
Pacific-Southwest branch at Thirty-ninth and Western, the 11th inst., $713.
Heliman Trust and Savings Bank branch at Twenty-sixth and Santa Fe, Vernon, the 5th inst., $15,000.

The Lancer

The Lancer
by Harry Carr
I ALMOST missed this book. The title was so sorry. How could the author of a book like "Elizabeth in Her German Garden" write a novel—and call it "Love"?
But anyhow, that was the name of it. After glancing at it with heavy disdain I finally read it.
DECEMBER AND MAY.
It is based upon a most remarkable theme.
A woman of 47 marries a boy of 25.
And then her troubles begin. People meeting the couple compliment her upon her "son." And then, learning the truth, exchange horrified glances.
The poor little bride haunts heavy parlors and face lifts and arched doctors in a frenzied attempt to cling to what of youth is left to her.

GRIEZLED AGE
At length a terrible tragedy happens in her life.
In the midst of this tragedy her husband unexpectedly returns home—and finds a pitiful little middle-aged, broken woman—grievous hair; yellow, lifeless skin—where he had seen the bloom of youth.
The novel ends with the couple clinging blindly to their love—but both afraid to look into the future.

IN REAL LIFE
What interests me so keenly in the novel is that it parallels a case that a great many people in the writing business know about.
When I first saw her—the real girl—she was the most flapperish woman I had ever gazed upon.
She was admittedly the witliest woman in New York. She smoked cigars and wrote prize fights for the papers. Incidentally, she was a great sporting reporter.
She had an almost unearthly insight into the probable outcome of big fights.
She was, in fact, a star "pick-er."

THE LAST MARRIAGE
Several times she was married.
She was so winsome and attractive, so gay and stylish and chic and young that men were her slaves.
Her last marriage was to a man younger by many years. They went away to live in South America or some such distant part.
SLIPPED BACK
Not long before his death Charles Van Loan told me that he had just met her in New York.
Her hair had gone gray—almost white. Her French heels were gone. She was dressed plainly and demurely. Her face was lined and her oft-becorered lips were pale and colorless.
She had come out of the wilds to sell a novel, and was on her way back again to her young husband.

STOPPED STALLING
To my friend's startled inquiry she said simply:
"Charles? He stopped stalling... and I'm happy!"

The Andrew County, Missouri, association is planning a picnic Sunday at Sycamore Grove Park. In case of rain, the picnic will be postponed a week.

EX-RAIL CHIEF VISITING HERE

R. H. Ashton Declares Road Service at Peak

Points Out Elimination of Car Shortage Since War

Tells of Improvement Due to Railway Association

Car shortages have been eliminated and railway transportation service has been improved during the last two or three years to a point of efficiency surpassing that of any other period in railway history, yesterday declared R. H. Ashton, Chicago, president of the American Railway Association and former president of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad.

Mr. Ashton is in Southern California with his family to spend the winter, the party staying at the Maryland Hotel, Pasadena. He was one of the guests of honor at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon at the Biltmore yesterday.

"The improvement in the railway service is largely due to efforts made by the roads themselves," said Mr. Ashton. "Since the war an aggregate of more than $2,000,000,000 has been invested by the different companies in new equipment of various kinds. Aside from that, the system of co-operation among the railways and the American Railway Association has been a factor in improving the service, to say nothing of the co-operation of the public, which has been marked during the last few years.

"The American Railway Association is an organization of railroad and other interests, whose object is to facilitate rail operation," said Mr. Ashton. "Through its different departments it prevents car shortages, assists in the improvement of schedules, in the ironing out of claims disputes, and in the promotion of safety in railroad travel. The regional board of the association, functioning here in California, which includes ninety members of your Chamber of Commerce, represents the different lines of activity, ranks among the first of the association's regional boards, covering all parts of the country, in the value of its services."

Aside from its activities pertaining exclusively to improvement of traffic, Mr. Ashton said, the American Railway Association also conducts a research department devoted to the perfection of equipment.

"At this time this department is making a study of air brakes with a view to the improvement of this device," he said. "Another line of experiment is being conducted in an effort to develop a better system of draft gears, the mechanism used for linking freight cars together in a train. It is hoped to devise a system that will do away with the jarring of the cars and their contents taking place when a train starts or stops."

"These are two concrete examples of what the research department is doing. In addition experiments are constantly in progress to devise new safety appliances and to evolve new methods calculated to promote the safety of the public, not only as it relates to travelers on trains, but with reference to grade crossings and other conditions."

MEETING LACKS QUORUM
Owing to the lack of a quorum the Harbor Commission did not hold its regular meeting yesterday. Bids scheduled to be opened and other matters will be considered at the next regular Wednesday meeting.

CHARGES IN ARSON CASE DISMISSED

Millinery Shop Owner Freed Despite Protests of Fire Investigator

Charges of arson and burning insured property against David H. Gould, owner of the La Mode Millinery Company shop at 918 1/2 South Broadway, were dismissed yesterday by Municipal Judge Ambrose for lack of evidence.

Dismissal of the case was vigorously fought by Paul Wolfe, an investigator for the fire department, who declared that Gould had suffered seven fires in the last four years and that he had collected insurance on each one. He also declared that several employees in the shop had been informed by Gould that he had left a gas jet burning in the shop and that the act was deliberate.

Maude Ryan, an insurance agent, also testified. She stated that she had written a policy for $1750 on Gould's shop and that he has now put in a claim for the insurance.

DAWES GAG FIGHT HELD FRUITLESS

Former Senator Visiting in Pasadena Predicts Senate Won't Change Rules

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent PASADENA, Feb. 17.—Vice-President Dawes is visiting his time and that of the hearers who listen to his talks on behalf of the rules limiting debate in the Senate, for that legislative body is extremely unlikely to alter its time-honored customs, in the opinion of Former United States Senator William M. Johnson of Hackensack, N. J.

Former Senator Johnson is stopping at the Hotel Huntington for the winter, and though now retired from active political life, he is familiar through long experience with Washington affairs. In addition to his Senatorial experience, he was first assistant Postmaster-General under President McKinley.

He believes there is a great deal of merit in Mr. Dawes' aims, said Senator Johnson today, "but making long speeches—to which more often than not, nobody listens—has been one of the privileges of a Senator, and a custom handed down by long practice. I hope Mr. Dawes makes some progress, but to give up a tradition involving a matter of Senatorial courtesy, seems to me to be one of the last things the Senate is likely to do."

The former Senator from New Jersey is a life-long Republican; of late years he has been devoting his time to his large law practice. He is attorney for a number of great estates in the East.

Senator Johnson expressed himself as delighted with all that he has seen in Southern California, and as greatly impressed by the beauty of this region and its industrial and commercial activity.

FILM STAR'S MOTHER ILL IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Charlotte Pickford Resting Easy Following Major Operation

Mrs. Charlotte Pickford, mother of Mary Pickford, was seriously ill at the Osteopathic Hospital last night following a major operation performed early yesterday morning.

Dr. Norman F. Sprague, who is attending Mrs. Pickford, characterized her condition as still quite serious last night but somewhat better than it was earlier in the day. Twenty-four hours will have to elapse before any prediction of an accurate nature can be made as to the ultimate outcome, he said.

Mrs. Pickford had been suffering from a growth in her side for some months. When it became acute last Christmas Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks postponed their trip to Europe.

The work of both these expeditions will be directed by W. R. Tanner, assistant supervisor.

Police Say Checks Cashied by Suspect to Take Acting Lessons

When only $4 short of the point where he was to abandon a career of crime to become a film actor, Richard Fielding was arrested on charges of passing worthless checks, according to police testimony in Municipal Judge Ballard's court yesterday.

Fielding, according to testimony, came here from New York and determined to enter a motion-picture school to become an actor. He needed $150, and began passing small checks on neighborhood stores, with the idea of reforming as soon as he had acquired the tuition fee, police said.

Fielding had $46 when arrested. He was held to answer.

readable and must give the public what it wants.

Mr. Curtis said he recently saw a story about a theatrical man saying that the people want the kind of plays that are offered them.

"The trouble is," Mr. Curtis said, "the theatrical men haven't really wanted what the people really want."

And he indicated that meanwhile the people have access only to what is offered them.

LINCOLN 'LAMBLASTED'

Mr. Curtis recalled something of Lincoln's time, how the Great Emancipator was "lambasted as crude and vulgar, and that a tablet of centuries before Christ told of how the times were going with the 'low-down,' and then he commented:

"What we think of today as chaotic isn't very much after all. The great error for misunderstanding, which Mr. Curtis blamed for many evils, 'lies in getting too much of a general picture, he commended such organizations as the City Club.

"The more you get together, the more you understand each other," he said.

Incidentally, Mr. Curtis spoke of a fight and said that the boom there found its basis in the gambling or speculative tendencies of people.

"Because people were buying and selling so frenziedly there," Mr. Curtis said, "everything to sell went down there to sell it."

"A man had a $10 registered dog and he went down there to sell it. He asked $100,000 for it. He returned and when asked what he had got rid of the dog he said: 'Yes, I traded him for a couple of $50,000 cats.'"

"It was a slight on his personal affairs," Mr. Curtis said, "he bought The Saturday Evening Post in 1897 for $1000."

Tree Planting Program to be Given by Boys

The forestry division, recently created by the Board of Education, will supervise the work of fifty young men from the First Universalist Church, Boy Scouts, and other organizations next Sunday in a tree-planting program on the divide between Big Tujunga and Arroyo Seco. A religious service will be conducted at noon, and in the evening the boys will have dinner at Switzer's Camp, provided by the church.

A group of twenty-five boys from the David Starr Jordan High School will go into the same district next Wednesday. They will be transported to a tract donated by the Moreland Truck Company for the day. The trees have been supplied by the County Park Department, which is assisting in the reforestation work undertaken by the school.

DELAY ASKED ON SUITS

Wilmington Working Out Plan to Use Other Property for Park

A resolution instructing the City Attorney to ask for a thirty-day continuance today in the Superior Court on condemnatory suits affecting property for proposed parks in Wilmington was introduced yesterday in the Council by Councilman Golden. Mr. Golden said that he took this action at the request of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, which at present is working out a plan to use other property for park purposes. The resolution was adopted.

LONG-FOUGHT SUSPECT HELD

William Myer Identified as Asserted White Slave Over Period of Twenty Years

Following hearing yesterday on deportation charges, Immigration Inspector Dick announced that William Myer, arrested the 4th inst., at 1228 North Alexandria street, had been identified as George Decia, a Frenchman, who for twenty years has been active in importing French women into the United States for immoral purposes.

The name Decia, long considered a myth in immigration official circles, became a reality, according to Dick, when in January, 1924, Myer was captured at El Paso, Tex., in company with a woman named Mme. Hierce. The pair escaped by leaping through a window and swimming the Rio Grande into Mexico.

Decia's real name is said to be William Louis Lalo and he first was heard of by officers twenty years ago while reported to have been acting as El Paso, Tex., Coast in San Francisco.

After fleeing into Mexico in January, 1924, the coast, according to Dick, was caught on a Los Angeles-bound train at Naco, Ariz., by Inspector Warren. He was

LENIENCY IN TILE STRIKE REQUESTED

Builders Ask Supervisors for Just Consideration on Hall of Justice Job

Treatment which shall take into consideration the fact that tile and marble contractors who recently decided to operate on an open-shop basis are victims of a union strike is requested by the Board of Supervisors by the Builders' Exchange for contractors on the new Hall of Justice.

The exchange, which represents all lines of the building industry, called the county officials' attention to the fact that the Association of Contractors and the exchange publicly have commended the tile and marble contractors for deciding in favor of this principle, which is credited with so much of Los Angeles prosperity. Then in a letter signed by L. B. Atkinson, the exchange said to the Supervisors:

"In view of the circumstances the Builders' Exchange urges your honorable body to recognize the existing strike conditions, which are making it difficult to complete marble and tile work promptly in this locality at this time, and we would urge that you show as much leniency as possible to marble and tile contractors having contracts with you at this time as regards the contract requirements for time of completion."

"Furthermore, we would ask that your honorable body insist upon a fair inspection of marble and tile work now being placed by mechanics in sympathy with the present strike in order that any improper prejudice against such work may not be permitted to condemn and delay the operations of the mechanics working at present on such tile and marble work."

"The Supervisors have not yet replied to the communication, but Supervisor Bean, in charge of construction, said:

"As public officials we should not take sides one way or the other, for or against, union or nonunion workmen. But the county will not be in sympathy with the present strike in order that any improper prejudice against such work may not be permitted to condemn and delay the operations of the mechanics working at present on such tile and marble work."

LOVE AFFAIR RELATED IN BALM SUIT

Girl Suing Fred Solomon for $75,000 Damages Tells of Amour in St. Louis

Glenn Syfert, who is suing her former employer, Fred Solomon, dance-hall proprietor, for $75,000 damages for alleged breach of promise to marry, entered into an illicit love affair with a man in St. Louis long before she ever met Solomon, she testified yesterday in Judge Craig's court, where her suit against the dance-hall man is on trial.

The witness, however, said she did not try to keep her past from Solomon. It was on the occasion of their fifth meeting, she said, that Solomon asked her to marry him. They were at the Vernon Country Club, according to her testimony.

"You are the kind of girl I've been looking for," she quoted Solomon as saying, "I think we ought to get married."

"There are a lot of things in my past that I'd like to tell you about," Miss Syfert said she replied. "Perhaps after I have told you you won't want to marry me."

"I don't care anything about my past," the witness declared Solomon answered. "I have one, too. I don't care anything about my past."

Miss Syfert testified she told Solomon everything about her relationship with the other man, but he declared he replied that all she was concerned with was the present and the future.

NEW HARDWARE STORE

The New York Hardware Trading Company yesterday opened a new store in Los Angeles at 625 South Hill street, Saturday, the 20th inst. Starting with one small store fifteen years ago, the firm, under the management of J. C. Guerrant, has rapidly expanded and now controls three stores in Los Angeles, as well as a store in Pasadena. J. B. Spooner will be the manager of the new store.

RESOLUTION ON TUNNEL WITHDRAWN

Proposal Pruned Until Only Few Words Remain of Twenty-three Lines

The resolution presented to the Council yesterday by Councilman Barnes directing the Board of Public Utilities to make an investigation looking toward the use of the Third-street tunnel by Los Angeles Railway Company cars started by being twenty-three lines long.

It stated that the use of the tunnel by the yellow cars would reduce the running time by thirty minutes and would be of great benefit to residents west of Bunker Hill.

But Councilman Barnes was suspicious of anything that even resembles the rumble of a street car in a tunnel and they started whittling the resolution. Councilman Hall asked that the last line be snipped off, which was done. Then Mr. Barnes looked about for a second, but could not find one to delete.

"I'll second it if Mr. Barnes will cut out all the 'whereases' and decapitate his resolution of the first nineteen lines," said Mr. Hall.

"And cut out 'least possible delay,'" suggested Councilman Ash.

"I withdraw it so Mr. Hall can write it himself," said Mr. Barnes. And that was the end of the resolution.

SEEKS DEED TO OIL LAND GIVEN WIFE

Husband Tells Court He Just Made Gift in Case He Dies Unexpectedly

Bitterly indeed, does William M. Stevens regret the day he conveyed to his wife, Emma May Stevens, the little five acre plot for which the Vernon Oil Company pays a rental of about $4000 yearly.

For, according to the story he told Judge Price, he gave it to her only so that she'd have it if he died, and now she takes the transaction seriously and not only refuses to give it back, but will not give him more than 10 per cent of the rental.

This was not exactly the same light in which Mrs. Stevens showed the matter, however. She said that her husband turned the property over to her to keep his creditors from getting it and that she proposed to keep on seeing that they do not get it.

Stevens is 60 years of age and, according to J. Perry Wood, his attorney, he made the deed to the property with the understanding that it would not be effective or recorded until he should die. Judge Price listened to argument by counsel all morning yesterday, and took the case under submission.

taken to the city dumps and destroyed.

A house-to-house canvass was being made yesterday in the Russian and Armenian sections by the health officers to warn families of the danger lurking in innocent-looking cans of food discarded by the wholesalers to be destroyed, but which found their way to family cupboards.

In several houses, the officers stated, they recovered from one to a dozen cans of this condemned food. On different occasions lately residents of the section have been taken violently ill and died within a day or so. Health authorities yesterday were endeavoring to check up on these deaths and determine if possible the cause of the fatal illness.

The health officers will inspect all grocery stores in the district and continue their house-to-house canvass.

BANK ROBBERY SUSPECT TAKEN

while the arrest was in progress, also were held by the officers. Managers and others connected with the three Pacific-Southwest branch banks identified Thompson as the man who had made the hold-ups, police announced.

Thompson, in confessing the robbery, said he had made the first attempt because he was hard up and had followed up with the other robberies because of his success, police stated. In making the last robbery, that of the Hellman branch bank in Vernon, he had gone outside the city because of reading newspaper articles describing precautions against bank robberies, police said he told them.

Information leading to Thompson's arrest was obtained by E. T. Dalton, chief detective for the Pacific-Southwest Bank, working in co-operation with Chief of Detectives Cline. It was said.

Records in the police identification bureau, according to Detective Lieutenant Chandler, show that Thompson, whose real name is Lloyd Walter Clark, was arrested during 1912 for grand larceny. On April 17, 1917, he was arrested again on a charge of attacking a 17-year-old girl. On August 3, 1917, he was sentenced to from one to fifty years on this charge and was paroled November 27, 1924.

Miss Talley has an uncle here, W. R. Brown, 424 Bichel street, for many years a Southern Pacific Railroad engineer. She herself is the daughter of a Kansas City railroad telegrapher, who this week is taking his first vacation since 1907, and has gone to New York to hear his daughter sing.

Local relatives said Miss Talley, who is only 19 years of age, was "found" by a Kansas City church choir director. A number of receptions for her are being planned by Mrs. Brown. Miss Talley will go from here to Seattle to visit another uncle.

CUPID AND APHASIA IN SAD MIX-UP

Man Haled Into Court by Girl Denies Remembrance of Desire to Wed

Joe Mates doesn't want to marry anybody, and he didn't know what he was doing if he said he did, he declared in Municipal Judge Pope's court yesterday when summoned on a charge of disturbing the peace. It was a case of Cupid and aphasia getting mixed up, he intimated.

Some time ago, according to police, Mates met Miss Ellen Ziehlke, a trained nurse. For a while it was said, they were good friends, and then Mates's personality underwent a sudden change and he insisted on matrimony.

Miss Ziehlke refused. Mates, she said, kept telephoning her and finally threatened her with a revolver. Then she had him arrested.

Mates deposed that in his youth he engaged in boxing matches, and took some stiff punches. They had apparently left him with aphasia, because sometimes he didn't know what he was doing and couldn't remember it afterward.

He must have been like that when he wanted to commit matrimony, he said. Miss Ziehlke was an awfully nice girl and all that, but he didn't remember asking her to marry him. In fact, he didn't want to marry anyone.

Miss Ziehlke didn't want to marry him either, but no girl likes to be a man say that even if she doesn't want him. She protested vehemently that Mates had wanted to marry her.

Judge Pope found the defendant guilty of disturbing the peace. He deferred sentence until today upon Mates's statement that he had a family in Kansas who might send for him.

RIVER PROJECT HELD QUESTION FOR PEOPLE

That the final decision in regard to the Colorado River project rests with the people was a point stressed by Robert M. Clarke, former president of the Los Angeles Bar Association, in an address on the present status of the Colorado River development, delivered at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Billmore yesterday. "No particular interest, private or political, is going to be the determining factor in an enterprise of this magnitude," declared Judge Clarke. "In the last analysis, the questions involved must be answered by the people of the States affected."

The Sojourners' Club is composed of Masons who are serving in some branch of the military or naval service of the United States. The officers are Honorary President, Col. Perry W. Weidner; president, Maj. Reynold E. Blight, and the secretary, Lieut. Leonard Thomas.

NEW COURTS STATED TO RELIEVE CONGESTION

The new Municipal Court has gone a long way toward relieving congestion of the calendar in Superior Court, Municipal Judge Willis told members of the Kiwanis Club in an address at the club's luncheon yesterday. He pointed out that in the month of January a total of 2293 civil cases were filed in the Superior Court but that from the 1st to the 15th inst. only 888 cases were filed in the same court. More than 240 cases which otherwise would have gone to the Superior Court were filed instead in the Municipal Court, he stated.

GIRL TAKEN ON CHARGE OF PERJURY

Daughter of Couple in Divorce Court Said to Have Admitted False Testimony

Goldie Selzer, 17 years of age, was arrested yesterday on suspicion of perjury following her testimony in Judge Collier's court, where she was called, as a witness in the divorce suit between her father and mother, Abraham Selzer and Ida Selzer.

At the morning session, Rachel Selzer, sister of Goldie, had testified Goldie had worked in a dance hall on Spring street as an instructor. The testimony was given in connection with an effort to ascertain the income of the Selzer family.

However, Goldie, who had worked at the dance hall, had never received any funds from the dance in the morning was false.

Thereupon, Judge Collier called the district attorney's office, and the girl was taken into custody by Det. Atty. Wayne Jordan. Mrs. Selzer, who had been charged with perjury, was released.

In view of this theory and the youth of the girl, Jordan said, a formal complaint charging perjury probably will not be filed against the girl.

Jordan turned Goldie over to the Juvenile Hall authorities, who will hold her until a position can be obtained for her.

Bryson Named Executor of Rich Gillette Estate

Judge Revere in Probate Court yesterday ordered Public Administrator Bryson to take charge of the estate of G. G. Gillette, wealthy operator and reputed to be wealthy, who died last December 4.

The order was made on the application of P. B. Roy of Long Beach, who represented that he wanted to sue the estate, but could not because there was no administrator or executor.

Roy asserted that Gillette had persuaded him "by fraud and misrepresentation" to convey certain Long Beach property in exchange for 121 Los Angeles lots. He said he had never received title to the city property, and wants to sue to protect his rights.

REPORTER TURNS LOVE'S NEIGHBOR

It Was Evelyn Hughes and Frederick Stephen Balm Who Wanted to Get Married, All Right, But Didn't They, and Who Cared?

Evelyn Hughes and Frederick Stephen Balm didn't get a marriage license yesterday. They filed out part of an application blank, though.

Curiously, in the person of the press, was blamed. Somebody had tipped off some one that Evelyn Hughes and Frederick Stephen Balm were about to get a license.

A reporter stood at the door of the marriage license bureau, saying to all couples:

"Pardon me, are you Evelyn Hughes and Frederick Stephen Balm?"

For a long time none of the couples was. Then along came another couple, and the problem about being justly answered sweetly:

"No, I am Miss Smith."

The reporter, being a good reporter, knew his quest was at an end. He watched while the couple obtained an application blank and went to a desk to fill it out.

Then he approached again, and the skirt is echoed in the tail of the overbust.

We now have a not little hat which is reversible, making two hats in one.

Jumpers of white fannel are worn over white fannel riding breeches.

Charming scarfs for out-of-doors are made of plain fannel lined with a bright silk.

Very smart is a black velvet frock trimmed with applied flowers of black taffeta.

For general daytime wear the sports-type costume is still the invariably correct one.

So often the accompanying test is of black lines with the skirt of the frock is made.

The long, straight and narrow is the favorite, crumpled on many of the very plain frocks.

The sweater is so fashionable and many of them have straight down the front from chin to tail.

The Woman and Her Job

BY VALERIE WATROUS

SECRETS OF SUCCESS

(Questions concerning the problems of women will be answered in this column by Mrs. Valerie Watrous at The Times.)

An interesting story came to me from one of my readers today. Not only the story, but the conclusion, the moral, the small-town woman who is searching for a means of making a living, has been pointed out to me.

The writer told me of a woman who had been in a town of less than 100,000 who has provided for her family and sent her boys and girls through business college on her earnings as a cake-maker.

She says that the woman developed her skill with four different kinds of cake; that she uses the best materials and charges a higher price than any of the fancy bakeries and that to some of her larger customers she furnishes as high as four cakes a week.

This woman has guarded her recipe and her methods of preparation and refuses to part with them for love or money. One of the big bakeries is now in the process of breaking bread, becoming flowers. A thrill with anticipation, the new season awaits the feminine world.

It is my living," she said, "and once I sold my secret my popularity would vanish. At present I am mysterious. Even my sister-in-law has refused to tell me what I have been doing because of my business. I have been so successful that I have appeared in a town of this size."

My correspondent writes me that this woman secured her business by house-to-house selling. She interested one or two of her better customers to call up their healthy friends and recommended her product. In this way she obtained a list of the addresses of houses and we were able to find out where she otherwise would not.

At the morning session, Rachel Selzer, sister of Goldie, had testified Goldie had worked in a dance hall on Spring street as an instructor. The testimony was given in connection with an effort to ascertain the income of the Selzer family.

An outdoor study of the ballerina dance by Miss Lillian Powell, photographed by Dappich, proved the most popular picture at the fourth annual exhibition of pictorial photography at the Southwest Museum, and was awarded the Los Angeles Times prize cup. It was announced yesterday.

The exhibition was that of the Southern California Camera Club and attracted so much interest it was kept open a full month after the announced closing date.

The contest was decided by the votes of the visitors. The second highest number of votes was received by "The Model" by Fred William Carter of Covina, which was No. 17 in the exhibition. The third highest was No. 64, "The Little Thief" by T. Mayeda of Los Angeles.

Miss Powell created the ballerina dance in New York and gave it here at the Egyptian Theater in the prologue of "The Gold Rush."

proposal so cruelly unprepared for. She was also deeply touched by it, and began to cry.

Deane knew her tears were to be her only articulate response. He put his arms around her, and held her close to him, interminable minutes, it seemed to Minnie. She wondered how he could talk so quietly, so evenly, apparently with no passion at all about love. There was no perceptible trembling of his body as he held her in his arms, his breath was cool, and strong of cigarette smoke. He made no attempt to seek her lips, but held her reservedly, in what seemed to her scarcely an embrace.

Her quick ears caught the shuffle of feet outside the tent, and a tall shadow fell upon it. She wondered if it were Carlton, if he had followed her, and if he were standing there waiting to hear what Deane had to say about him. A tiny shaft of triumph

"Minnie!" "You're just a youngster after all. You seem so little to me. Hello, in the midst of all this cheap, rotten trafficking. I want to get you away from it!"

There came over Minnie a tingling desire to laugh hysterically; two men stirring up her emotions by talking of love: Deane's tireless repetitions of his protective love; the thrill of Carlton's stony, meaningful glances, the magnetism of his long, caressing fingers, the promise in his rich, full voice.

Deane's own voice rang out sharply. "Look here, Minnie! You little fool, you're laughing! You're standing here facing one of the greatest crises of your life and you haven't sense enough to know it!"

"I'm not laughing. I'm hysterical. I tell you. Why have you done a thing like this, in the middle of the day, without any preparation at all, asking me such a serious question as that? And I—"

"You're right, Minnie. I should have known better. To me the offer of a man's love needs no artificial background. I have made a very unfortunate choice of time and location. I am not an actor."

"You're getting sarcastic again." "That's my way, perhaps. It may be as good as a pose as the suave-ness of others. I wouldn't be surprised if that were the truth, as much as I fear it. In trying to be so different from them, I have created a character equally as artificial."

"Are you trying to make me hate you by talking like that? Please don't, Hal." "No, Minnie, I was only hoping that I could make you care for me."

Another installment of this interesting serial will appear in The Times tomorrow.

Seminary Drive Group to Hear Bishop Tonight

One hundred or more members of the junior seminary campaign executive committee will gather tonight at a dinner at the Biltmore, given in honor of Bishop Cantwell.

E. L. Doherty, chairman of the committee, will preside, and Bishop Cantwell will tell something of the purpose of the new junior seminary and the plans for the appeal to be carried on throughout the diocese for a period of ten days, beginning March 1.

The Junior Seminary campaign will not be launched for ten days, but the work of organization is practically completed, according to Rev. William E. Corr, general director of the activities. The seminary building fund is placed at a minimum of $1,000,000.

CADMAN IN PERSON

Cadman gave one of his most delightful talks, a Pawnee Indian song, "Kawa! Thy Baby Is Crying," which was harmonized by the composer without changing the original melody. Later he played his "Wolf Dance," a striking melody of the Omaha Indians, also appearing with the string quartet with "To a Vanishing Race," which was jointly composed by him and Joseph Zoselner. Sr.

Violist and father of the talented group of players, who also rendered Fisher's beautiful "Recesses" during the program.

Mr. Bent appeared on the later program, running from 8:30 until 10 p. m., as a courtesy to the Engineers' and Architects' Association, which sponsored the broadcast, with three other widely known figures also making brief addresses during the program.

These were Max H. A. Finch, district engineer of the United States War Department, who spoke particularly on the harbor conditions of Los Angeles and Long Beach; H. A. Van Norman, assistant chief engineer of the Bureau of Light and Power and former City Engineer, speaking technically on the Colorado River, and Commander A. H. Woodbine, U.S.N.R.

In addition to the brief addresses by these widely known persons the association presented an exceptionally fine musical program, including the unique quartet composed of C. M. Stuart, Wendell Smith, M. A. Green and G. G. Stuart, playing the musical saw, ukulele, banjo, violin and piano, a decidedly novel mixture of instruments, which immediately met the praise of the studio.

Two fine tenor soloists also appeared on this late broadcast—John Michelson, who made a real hit with "Who Is Sylvia?" with Charles Sprague playing his accompaniment, and Elmer Bramel, who also scored with Bruno Huhn's "Invitation" with Irma Johnson as accompanist. May Barlow, talented dramatic soprano, was another delightful addition to the evening, especially in her singing of "Friend of Mine," with Wilfrid Sanderson at the piano. A group of ensemble vocal numbers was given by the male quartet of California Institute, including the "Old Refrain" and the "Old Gray Robe." This quartet was composed of John Michelson, first tenor; Robert Snyder, second tenor; Glenwood MacLenn, baritone, and Homer Williams, bass.

The early evening broadcasts from KJL were filled to the brim with slight appearing on the Charles Hottel, starting with Little Dick Winslow, the screen juvenile reporter, who gave another story of his adventures as an embryonic newspaperman; Mickey McBan, the "Scottish Laddie," Vivian Marple, "Blue Bell of KJL," Edward Greensburg, 11-year-old pianist; Eileen June, 9-year-old singer; Kenneth Larsen, youthful saxophonist, pupil of the Thompson Progressive School for Saxophone; Lloyd Vaughn, juvenile saxophonist from the same institution; both being accompanied by Kathryn Thompson, and Prof. Francis Wagner and his 11-year-old son, Roger, in piano duets.

ASTRONOMER TALKS

Dr. Mars Baumgardt, prominent city optometrist and astronomical authority, gave his weekly talk on the science of the heavens immediately afterwards, being followed in turn by Prof. Walter Sylvester Hertzog, radio historian, with his daily lecture on American history.

The noon program of the Motor Transit Company was an unusual by the example of radio entertainment, presenting an excellent group of artists, including Beile Newland, the "King of the Ukulele," Charles Craver, whose parody of old-fashioned fiddling tunes carried the title of "Arkansas Char-Be," has won him a real place in the affections of Radioland; the inimitable California Blue Boys, Charles Ham and Earl Reynolds, known to every fan in the country, and Uncle Remus himself.

This image is a vertical, high-contrast, black and white photograph. It depicts a close-up of a textured surface, likely the cover or endpaper of an old book. A dark, heavily textured vertical strip runs down the center of the frame, showing signs of wear, creases, and possibly stitching or binding material. The surrounding areas are lighter and have a more uniform, though still textured, appearance. The overall effect is one of age and tactile quality.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agents for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchitis, asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist, Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga.—(Advertisement)

Unblemished SKIN

Gives You Confidence

HOW conscious we are of our skin! Even one little pimple or blackhead will so embarrass us that we want to hide right away. And eczema, boils, blotches and rashes! Why, these awful things simply destroy all our ambition! But what confidence we have in ourselves if our skin is clear and unblemished—free from any eruptions or breaking out! A clear skin is one of the greatest possessions in the world—and it is so easy to have it. All that is necessary is to keep our systems full of rich, red, pure blood. S. S. S. helps Nature build this blood. And the impurities that cause these so-called skin disorders are driven right out of the system.

If you want the kind of skin that captivates men and compels the admiration of other women, just remember that you can't have it if your blood is impure. Needs but just build red-blood-cells in your blood with S. S. S. and your dream of a soft, rosy, velvet skin, clear of blemishes, will be realized. Then, notice the difference in the way you feel.

S. S. S. has proven for generations that it helps Nature build the rich, red blood that makes beautiful skin and healthy bodies. Let S. S. S. prove it for you.

Get S. S. S. from any drug store. And get the larger bottle. It's more economical.

PETTICOAT-WILL JURY DEADLOCK

Seven Hours' Effort Fails to Bring Verdict

Will Resume Deliberation at 10 a.m. Today

Judge Gives Nine Points on Which Issue Hinges

After deliberating nearly seven hours without having reached a verdict, the petticoat-will jury, upon whose findings rests the disposition of the $100,000 estate of George W. Hazlett, retired at 10 p.m. last night, being conducted to a local hotel. The jury will resume deliberations at 10 o'clock this morning.

With nine specific questions to answer, the jury retired at 10:15 p.m. yesterday.

For an hour and ten minutes prior to retiring, the jury had listened to instructions from Judge Willis. The nine questions he put to them were:

LIST OF QUESTIONS

- (1) Was the will signed by another at the direction of decedent, George W. Hazlett, retired at 10 p.m. last night, being conducted to a local hotel. The jury will resume deliberations at 10 o'clock this morning.
- (2) Did the person who so signed, sign as a witness?
- (3) Was this done in the presence and at the request of decedent?
- (4) Did decedent declare it to be his last will?
- (5) Did decedent know and understand the contents?
- (6) If the will was so signed and understood, was decedent of sound mind?
- (7) Was he acting under undue influence?
- (8) Was he persuaded by fraud to sign?
- (9) Did he make the cross marks at the bottom of the will, as asserted by proponents?

Upon the face of things, the disposition of the $100,000 estate left by Hazlett depends upon the jury's answer to these questions. But counsel for both proponents and contestants admitted privately yesterday that whichever way the verdict goes there will be an appeal, or a motion for a new trial. And if the verdict should be against the will, its proponents intend to press the contest of the probate of the prior, or 1919, will.

For more than two weeks Judge Willis and his jury have listened to the story of the drafting of the strange "petticoat will" penciled lines on the hem of an undershirt and to the contest that followed. Lillian Pelkey, nurse at the rest home where Hazlett died, said she wrote those lines on the bottom edge of her upturned petticoat, at the request of the dying patient, that she did not have any paper and that she felt she was merely satisfying the whim of a sick, old man. Mrs. Hazlett's heirs, however, said she was present and, with Mrs. Pelkey, witnessed the document. The two women were bequeathed $10,000 each by the will, though they admitted knowing that the fact they had signed as witnesses disqualified them as heirs.

The residue of the estate was devised by the "petticoat will" to Mrs. Lillian Woodbury Hazlett, grand-niece of Hazlett. The contestants are the heirs named in a will written in 1919, headed by Dell X. Schwitzer and Frank E. Hutton, Hazlett's attorneys, and designated by him as residuary legatees. Other contestants are charitable and educational institutions, which were bequeathed sums of from $1,000 to $10,000 each by the 1919 will.

West Coast, Inc., Stock Reported Sold by Lesser

Sol Lesser has disposed of his stock in the West Coast Theaters, Inc., according to a report circulated last night. Mr. Lesser, it was stated, held a one-seventh interest in the corporation.

The purchasers of Mr. Lesser's interest in West Coast are said to be the original franchisees of First National and the Hayden-Stone Company, brokers of New York and Boston.

Mr. Lesser is in New York City and details of the transaction were not available last night. However, the transfer of stock will not result in any change of policy or of future plans of the West Coast interests, it was announced.

LENTEN SERVICES BEGIN

Various Denominations in City Observe Season With Special Worship in Churches

Dark days for the Prince of Peace, ending with the tragedy of Calvary, preceded the Godman's victory over death and the powers of evil. Commemorating the sorrows of the Savior Christendom yesterday began the observance of Lent. Ash Wednesday services featured the programs at many Los Angeles churches.

Palms used in decorations and services will be conducted every Thursday and Friday at 4 p.m. During the first ten days of Lent services will be conducted every evening, with sermons by Bishop Irving P. Johnson of Colorado.

MASS AT ST. VIBIANA'S

Arrangements have been made to have holy mass offered at St. Vibiana's Cathedral at 12:30 p.m. every day during Lent. The stations of the cross will be said at Calvary Cemetery at 3 p.m. every Sunday.

Lutheran churches of Los Angeles will observe the Lenten season with special services every Wednesday evening with the exception of Holy Week when the services will be conducted on Good Friday and Easter Sunday.

Local Protestant churches have arranged for noon-day services at the Philharmonic Auditorium from March 29 to April 1, inclusive, when the speaker will be Prof. Walter A. Maier from the Concordia Seminary at St. Louis.

Although Protestant evangelical churches observe no set schedule in regard to Lent, practically all of them will observe the season by special services at their respective homes of worship, especially during Passion Week. Nearly all of the churches have already begun arrangements for elaborate Easter services with a result, conducted on scores of hilltops of the Southland.

BISHOPS GIVE ADDRESSES

Addresses by Bishops Johnson and Stevens and by many noted visiting rectors will be given at the cathedral every day at noon, following organ recitals which will start at 11:30 a.m. On Wednesday, during Lent, Holy Communion will be observed at 10 a.m. and services also will be conducted in the evenings. A series of sermons on "Modern Types of the Men Who Crucified Christ" will be preached Sunday evenings by Mr. Chas. W. West.

Ash Wednesday was observed at St. John's Episcopal Church yesterday with services at 7 and 10 a.m. in charge of Dr. George Davidson, the rector. During Lent

FRONK ASSETS MOUNTING

Attorney For Receiver Estimates Total at $150,000 as Dispute Arises Over Bank Stock

The assets of J. K. Fronk, asserted killer of checks, charged with swindling Los Angeles banks out of more than $200,000, probably will amount to $150,000, it was estimated yesterday by Nathan Goldberg, attorney for E. Lynch and H. W. Riddle, receivers in bankruptcy.

AUTO ROW PREPARING FOR SHOW

Final Grooming Given Cars; Lighting System Inspected by Committee

Along automobile row last night were the unmistakable signs of the approaching motor show. Midnight electricity was burned in the garages and upstairs rooms where the cars that are to be placed in the thirteenth automobile show of the Los Angeles Motor Car Dealers' Association were being given their final grooming. When the show opens Saturday at 3 p.m., the three and one-fourth acres of floor space will be filled with the largest number of cars that ever were gathered in an automobile show in the West.

The immense lighting system was given a complete test last night for the approval of Harold W. Tuttle, chairman; Watt L. Moreland, Reeve Garman, and J. J. Pelkey and J. Benjamin Fahy of the special show committee and Secretary Hurl Roberts, who is serving as show manager. The illumination was enthusiastically declared to be by far the most brilliant ever seen in an automobile show. The committee and Secretary Roberts announced that Automobile Dore of film fame had been selected to turn on the switch which will flood the show with light next Saturday night.

Special provisions are to be made for the handling of traffic that will center at Hill and Washington streets without confusion. Secretary Roberts says that thousands of spectators' cars may be parked nearby.

"We have made a bold promise that this year's show will be the most elaborately and artistically decorated of any motor exhibit ever held here," said Chairman Tuttle. As the final touches are being put on the decorations, it is certain that promise has been made good.

FUNERAL OF I. W. GARDNER CONDUCTED

Pioneer Music Dealer of City Paid Honor by Friends at Final Services

I. Wellington Gardner, for fifty-four years a resident of Los Angeles and the pioneer music dealer of the city, was buried from his home, 2626 Wilshire Boulevard, yesterday.

Mr. Gardner had been in excellent health until a few hours before his death last Friday. He was 72 years of age, and retired from business twenty-one years ago, at which time he built his home in Wilshire Boulevard, a wide, comfortable residence.

He was a charter member of the Chamber of Commerce and of the City Club.

Many old friends of the family attended the services yesterday, and the services were lavishly and beautifully. Interment was made in Hollywood Cemetery.

Besides the widow, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Jane Hall Vanover, B. C. and two sisters, Mrs. Edward Smith of Pasadena and Mrs. Hamlin Smith of Los Angeles.

SHOE MAN RETURNS FROM EASTERN TRIP

V. A. Metzger, president and buyer of La Mode Shoes, Inc., 733 South Flower street, has returned from a visit to eastern markets. He attended the recent shoe convention in Chicago, and studied conditions in New York shoe centers. The tendency toward simplicity in footwear continues, he reported.

ROWELL VISIONS NEW CHINA

Speaks at Chamber Luncheon on Trade Expansion to Follow Oriental Renaissance

Industrial developments in the Orient, now making rapid strides, will present trade problems in whose solution the entire Pacific Coast will be vitally interested, declared Chester Rowell, editorial writer and former Fresno newspaper publisher, in an address before the luncheon meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at the Biltmore yesterday.

Mr. Rowell, who was the principal speaker, spoke on the development of countries bordering the Pacific Ocean, one of the chief subjects of discussion at the Institute of Pacific Relations conducted at Honolulu last summer, which meeting he attended as one of the American representatives.

"One of the countries that will demand the attention of the world's attention from now on is China, where an awakening is taking place of which the rest of the world is only dimly aware," said Mr. Rowell. "China's population is as intelligent and diligent as our own, but it has been slow to take part in modern advancement. It is now making a start in that direction, and its development will ultimately necessitate the establishment of new relations between China and other countries, particularly America, where the Pacific Coast forms the boundary between the world of the Orient and that of the Occident."

EDUCATIONAL STRIDE

China's awakening is manifested especially in the rapid educational strides now being made in that country, the speaker pointed out. "China has adopted a program whose object is to teach all of its 400,000,000 people to read and write," he continued. "To attain this object they are discarding the ancient system of hieroglyphs and are adopting a simplified system of writing by which the essentials of the language may be placed within the grasp of the common people and their learning of only 1200 characters."

"More than 100,000 teachers are now teaching this system, newspapers employing it are beginning to be published, and within ten years it is estimated that China will have a greater number of newspaper readers than America or Europe. This enlightenment cannot result in only one thing, the creation of new desires with a result, increase in methods for satisfying these desires, which, in turn,

SMALLPOX CASES NINE YESTERDAY

Total 233 During Month; San Francisco Report Says Four Die There

Nine new cases of smallpox were reported in Los Angeles yesterday, according to City Health Officer Parrish. Daily reports at the health bureau, this week were: Sunday, six; Monday, three; Tuesday, five, and Wednesday, nine.

There has been a total of 233 cases this month to date. The total for the year to date is 438 cases. The total number of cases reported last week was 112. Totals for the preceding weeks were 112, 38 and 64 cases, respectively.

STATE GETS REPORT OF 200 CASES IN WEEK

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 17.—Two hundred new cases of smallpox were reported to the State Board of Health last week. This figure, made public at headquarters here today, compares with 186 for the preceding week and 137 for the corresponding week last year.

DISEASE TRACED TO ARRIVAL OF SHIP

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—A report issued today by Dr. H. Halliday, epidemiologist of the State Board of Health, says that four persons have died here from smallpox, and that seventeen and probably more persons have contracted the disease since January 1.

Dr. Halliday's report, made to W. M. Dickie, Secretary of the Board of Health, says the disease was brought here from aboard a ship which arrived here January 1.

ANGELENOS TOP LIST IN SHOE BUYING

Leather Company Head Sees Opportunity Here for More Footwear Factories

More shoes are sold in Los Angeles per capita than in any other city in the United States, according to Charles H. Stearns of Rochester, president of the Leather Manufacturing Company of that city.

Mr. Stearns is spending the winter at the Huntington Hotel in Pasadena.

"With the vast amount of footwear required by the citizens here, it is a wonder to me that you don't have more shoe factories," said Mr. Stearns. "It seems to me that such an enterprise would be highly successful in Los Angeles."

I am informed that the oriental trade is assuming large proportions here, and it seems that a big market could be created for shoes on the other side of the Pacific."
